

DINING

Where are we going to eat?

That's one of the first questions usually asked on any vacation. In the past five years, visitors and residents of Navarre Beach and northern Santa Rosa County have gained a variety of restaurant choices.

On Navarre Beach, Banana Bob's located on the first floor at the Summerwind West Condominium offers a selection of healthy and cool smoothies and other snacks. Craving ice cream? Grab a scoop at the newly opened Fun Store located in the former location of Eco Beach.

Pizza and wings are the newest island addition at Sailor's Grill located next to Juana's Pagoda. The restaurant is popular for its seafood basket and is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner. The on-site bakery offers a tasty selection of fresh-baked goods for both humans and their pets!

Cocodries, located on the gulf-side, has become a popular destination for baby boomer motorcycle enthusiasts. Each Sunday, several hundred enjoy a casual cookout and entertainment. Throughout the week diners enjoy the relaxed fine dining atmosphere where they will find a wide selection of soups, salads, sandwiches, seafood, steaks, pork and desserts.

Just "over the bridge" in Navarre, visitors can get almost any kind of food they desire. Craving an authentic Cajun Po Boy? Bayou Bob's located in the Winn Dixie shopping center recently opened and serves lunch and dinner. T. C.'s Front Porch opened in 2007 and has become a locals' favorite hangout. Italian food lovers will enjoy Vinnie R's Restaurant just 5 minutes from the beach. Sports lovers will enjoy the pub-style atmosphere at Kazbor's Grille. Buffet fare and menu items both are offered at Kracker Jax buffet which offers breakfast, lunch and dinner.

A wide variety of chain fast food is available on the mainland. Whataburger recently opened a new store off Hwy. 98. Others include McDonald's, Waffle House, Burger King, Taco Bell, Kentucky Fried Chicken, Firehouse Subs and more.

Northern Santa Rosa County now features several chain sit-down dining options including Beef O'Brady's, Chili's and Texas Roadhouse, Cici's Pizza and more.

Locally owned options include long-time favorite Nichol's Seafood, Main Street Café, and The Stewart Street Cafe in downtown Milton and foot-stomping fun at the Farmer's Opry House located in Chumuckla.
